The Trouble We Come From

Written By Scott Caan

Directed by Matt August

Now through June 28!

June 19, 2015, Burbank, CA – Final 2 weekends! Must close early! The Falcon congratulates cast member Michael Weston on landing a big TV series (to be officially announced soon)! Don't miss this hit cast in their final performances in the world premiere romantic comedy The Trouble We Come From written by Scott Caan and directed by Matt August, now playing through June 28!*

Critics love The Trouble We Come From:

“...co-star Michael Weston who, with [Scott] Caan, took the audience for a ride in the fast lane as this contemporary tale of two “have-your-back” buds and their fear of commitment... The journey results in a continuum of laughter throughout the evening.”

– State of the Arts

“Teri Reeves in a tour de force performance plays all the crazy, but irresistible women from Charlie’s past. She shifts with ease from Joanna, Samantha, Kelly and The Blond, making each character distinct and memorable.”

– Examiner

“It’s Doris Day and Rock Hudson, it’s Spencer Tracy and Katherine Hepburn, but with two straight guys just trying to figure things out in one night of sleepless chaos... Run, don’t walk to get your tickets to this classic Hollywood romcom...”

– NoHo Arts District

“The dialogue is snappy, funny and thoughtful.”

– OnStageLA

“...Matt August’s incisive direction and a pair of terrific lead performances... Van der Boom gets just one scene, but it’s a mind-blower, and the Australian beauty plays it with a just-right blend of heart and smarts and oodles of chemistry with Weston...”

– StageSceneLA

“Reeves’ hysterical vamping as she seduces Charlie absolutely slays while raising the collective temperature of the room... [Scott] Caan has written a very witty and smart script...”
